

last i checked, the united states was a capitalist county, XM radio is capitalism at it's best. unless you're going to try to take away cable, satellite, and web tv and radio broadcasts don't you think you should leave them alone?